On Thin Ice – Final presentation of the enter Summer School Young creatives from all over Europe visiting Oulu2026

What can humour achieve when there isn't much left to laugh about?
Do jokes transcend borders?
And what does comedy have to do with resilience?

Over 30 young people from 8 European countries are spending a week in Oulu to explore precisely these questions through the medium of art. Together with the artists Anne Decker (GER), Hanna Kukko (FIN) & Irina Marinescu (ROM), they are placing the theme of humour at the heart of their workshop week, exploring the genres of stand-up, comics and gaming. Along the way, they'll discover this year's European Capital of Culture and forge connections across national borders.

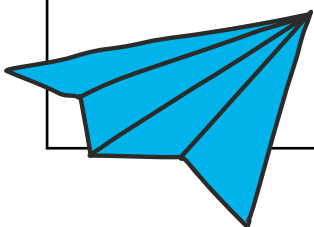

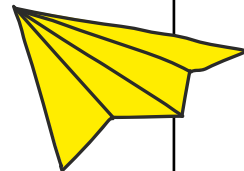

We kindly invite you to join us on our final workshop day for a presentation and European get-together!
